A NEW YEAR'S MISFORTUNE .- "DO you make calls on New Years?" "Never," said my friend Dex. "I used to but I'm cured."

"Hew so?" said I, anxious to learn his experience.
"Why, you see," said Dex., feelingly, "as I was making calls, some years back, I fell in love with a beautiful girl—that she was. Well, sir, I courted her like a trump, and I thought I had her snre, when she eloped with a tailor—yes, sir, that lovely creature did."

"She showed bad taste," said I, compassionately.

"More than that," remarked Dex, nervously. "Downright inhumanity is the word. I could stand being gilted for a downtown broker, a militia captain, or anything showy, that I couldbut to be cut out like a suit of clothes, by the ninth part of a man-a trifle over the decimal traction of humanity-that was brutality. But I swore vengeance-that I did."

"Vengeance!" I nervously en-

"Yes, sir,," said Dex, with earnestness, "and I took it. I patronized the robber of my happiness, and ordered a full suit of clothes, regardless of expense. the traitor laid himself out on the job. I tell you, they were stunning, you may believe it."

"But your vengeance?" said I, prompting him.

"I struck that tailor in his most vital point-that I did-I never paid that bill-no, sir, I didn't. But those infernal clothes were the cause of all my future misfortunes, that they were."

"How so?' said I, with a smile of compassion. "Wearing them, I captivated my present wife. She told me so, and I havn't had a happy day since. But I am bound to be square with that wretched tailor, in the long run, if I have to see my glorious uncle in the attempt. I've left him a legacy, on condition that he marries my widow; but if he don't, I'll beat her so that she will be compelled to get a divorce."

NEW INVENTION .- Mr Campbell, a carpenter of this city, has invented a very ingenious wine press, which we think is destined to become very useful. A press of sufficient capacity to crush a ton of grapes in a few minutes, will occupy only a trifling space, and can be removed from one location to another by two men. The motive power is of the hydraulic order, the juice of the grape as it exudes, being, by the aid of a hand pump which can be worked by a lad of twelve years, used to give the hydraulic force necessary to produce a pressure of from one to ten tons, according to the size of the press. Application has been made for a patent, and soon this interesting invention will be offered to the public.—Sac. Bee.

THE population of Boston, by the new corporation census, is 164,788—less than that of Chicago.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 22, 1865.

The Fate of Charleston,

Dispatches confirm] the report that Charleston has fallen and we are disposed to yield it credence. But whether or not the impatient rumor flies before the fact it is a certainty, which cannot much longer be deferred. The arena of war has become narrowed down to such limits as will speedly bring to bear the resources of strategy upon the doomed City of Sedition and compel its evacuation or the surrender of those, who attempt its defense, at the discretion of Sherman's victorious legions.

In contemplating this probable consummation we are naturally led to reflect upon the retribution, terrible but just, which has followed and finally overtaken this infamous birth-place of treason.

From that prolific source have come all the political heresies which have ever seriously threatened the peace, or endangered the existence of the Republic There rose the bigoted school of nullifiers, of whose mischieveus creed John C. Calboun was the able but misguided expounder.

The serpent then spawned, which Andrew Jackson scotched but unfortnnately did not kill, gradually grew into the hideous monster, that afterwards reared its hydra-beads all over the South in malignant rebellion. The seeds of sedition, sown long ago, germinated and produced their bitter fruits. The people of Charleston, who were first tempted to pluck them, have had ample opportunity to taste their quality and decide whether they are of the kind, "that tempt the eye but turn to ashes on the lips."

We all remember how, for many years those Hotspurs of newspaperdom, the Charleslon Mercury and Courier, scattered their bitter philippics broadcast over the southern land; how anathematized the people of the North with the vehemence of absolute bate, and, in the imperious pride of the class to whose vicious taste they pandered, breathed treason and defiance toward the National authority. They have waited long for the reward of their guilt, but, at last, it has found them.

For two dreadful years the avenger has stood at the gates of the haughty capital, and shaken the pillars of her pride with Titanic blows. And the iron monsters of the deep have kept sleepless watch thereby, like Cerberus before the gloomy portals of the damned, vomiting the thunder-bolts of unslumbering wrath upon the doomed city. Still on the darkness of midnight flaming shells have marked their meteor course on high in trails of lurid fire hung threateningly in the heavens like the sword of the Archangel. Disaster has followed fast upon their footsteps and perpetually haunted them with the visible terrors of a just retribution. To them Charleston has been literally a place of torment. Her fearful inhabitants have wept bitterly in dust and ashes-the ashes of their own homes-and their wail of despair has ascended in vain: "How long, O Lord! how long?"

That which they delighted to predict should befall the cities of the North has been verified where they least expected its fulfillment, and grass bas indeed grown in the desolate streets of Charleston. Never, since "brimstone and fire" were rained from heaven upon the "Cities of the Plain," has such signal retribution fallen upon a rebellieus people-and whe shall say they have not deserved the penulty?

BY PAGIFIC TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

New York, Feb, Ist. The Herald's Savannah correspondent says: Notwithstanding rebel denials to the contrary, the Union sentiment throughout Georgia is very strong. meetings being held in at least nineteen counties, at which resolutions in favor of closing the war and returning to the Union were adopted. These are said to express almost the unanimous feeling of the people in the northwestern as well as other parts of the State. At Augusta and Pulaski peace meeting were broken up by the military. The Legislature ras to meet in extra session yesterday. Strong efforts will be made, with good hope of success, to have it authorize the calling of a convention for the purpose of effecting a resteration of the State to the Union. Gov. Brown believed fully in accord with the movers in this project. The smallpox is very bad among the negroes in and about Savannah.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says: An order to evacuate Mobile was received from Richmond 14th Jan., and that Mowry commenced at once removing stores, etc., to Selma. It is also said nearly all the rebel troops have left

New York, Feb. 16th.

The World's special says: A special nessenger with dispatches who left Sherman's army ten miles from Branchville. has arrived. When he left, Sherman was easily overcoming all obstacles in his way. On Friday last Gen. Schimmelfening with a small force from Folly Island, crossed over to James Island and captured some rifle pits and took quite a number of prisoners after a brief skirmish. At the time the Arago passed Charleston vigorous cannonading was going on, but character not ascertained.

New York, Feb. 16th. The Herald's special says, Richmond papers of the 15th announce telegraphic communication with Charleston broken. That Sherman's cavalry are probably operating on the railroad from Charleston via Raleigh and Wilmington, thus cutting the last line of communication between Virginia and the South.

Washington, Feb. 16th. The House passed the Senate bill for the establishment of steam service between the United States, China and Ja-

Cairo, Feb. 16th. The New Orleans Delta says, the evacuation of Mobile has begun. The fact was known to Gen. Granger on January 14th. Fifteen thousand bales of cotton are at the city, which Mowry has ordered destroyed as soon as our forces take possession of the place, and it is believed the citizens will save it.

Philadelphia, Feb. 16th. A special to the Evening Bulletin says, the Richmond papers of the 15th alry are actually as far north as Florence, and have secured an important railroad junction on the borders of North Carolina. He also aquounces all telegraphic communication with Charleston destroyed; thus showing that Sherman's left column must have struck the North-Eastern road, running from Charleston to Florence.

Richmend papers of the 14th, show that the question of arming the slaves has been temporarily laid aside in the rebel Congress.

New York, Feb. 16th. The Commercial's special says, rumors are in Washington of favorable military news from North Carolina in addition to that read last night.

The admission of Representatives from Louisiana and Arkansas is regard-salaries twenty per cent.

It is believed that the issue of Treasury notes under the new Loan bill will be limited to the denomination of $100 and upwards

New York, Feb. 16th. The steamer Bagle, from Havana, with dates and private letters from Mexico say that Gen. Bazaine has been defeated three times at Oaxico, with heavy losses. On one occasion, he found him-self almost surrounded by masked batteries, which did fear ul execution on his army. Gen. Days has 12000 men and 100 pieces of artillery. This force is constantly increasing. It was report-ed at Vera Cruz that Bazaine was se verely wounded. Seven hundred of the Foreign Legion have neserted; going over to the liberals. The liberals have increased in strength, and it is said, now number 60,000. They have recovered the entire State. The Jalisco Empire consists only of Matamoras, Tuxsun, Tampico. Vera Cruz and Alvarado. Mexican authority is mantained in those places by the frequent executions of innocent Mexicans. The liberals had gained a victory at Sognite.

Additional by Steamer. -- Professor Goldwin Smith, in the London Daily News, controverts the opinion of the Manchester papers, and urges that although a compromise with the slave oligarchy is impossible, it is possible that at no distant time negotiations may be hopefully commenced with the seperate states over which the oligarchy of Richmond is losing its usurped power.

The Index, the Confederate organ in London, ridicules Blair's alleged peace negotiations, but does'rt altogether discredit the peace rumors, and asserts that the North is unmistakably tired of the war, and that more rational councils are beginning to prevail, and claims the abandonment of the sea coast by strength of the inland armies. The Index then points out that friendship may be restored between the North and the South. and so close an alliance formed as to practically make a new Union, and under such circumstances war with England or France, or both, would be a necessity.

The Index contends that the United State Government is paving the way for such a war, and says the war has reached such a crisis that England and France must decide to become friends of one of the belligerents or fight them both, and that events are occurring which may precepitate the decision; at least in the case of France. The Index bids the South to be of good cheer, and promises them shortly a series of agreeable surprises.

New York, Feb. 17th. Sherman's left wing was on Monday fifteen miles north of Branchville and within fifty miles of Columbia. His right was in front of Charleston and two miles distant, threatening it on the next day. On Tuesday last it was indicated by the Richmond papers that his caval-ry had reached the Northeastern railroad, thus severing the last remaining link between Charleston and the rebel capital. His troops are also believed to be in the vicinity of Florence, an important point of convey nce of his communication between South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia.

Rebel papers admit that there is nothing to stop Sherman's army, and they expect that the national flag will soon be floating over Charleston, Augusta, Columbia and Raleigh.

The movement toward Wilmington last Saturday resulted in the permanent advance of the Union lines, which are being moved forward two miles. New ground was held and works were immediately thrown up.

The Herald's special says, our Consul in London, informed the Gov't of the sailing from Kingstown, Ireland, of the steamer Adjax, which is intended for a rebel pirate. Her armament had gone, or would go out in a sailing vessel; notwithstanding the fact that she is small, withstanding the fact that she is small, it is believed she will be able to do much damage to American shipping, and it is thought she would go to Nassau before taking on board her guns. Closing the port of Wilmington has been a sad blow to Nassau; all is stagnation there. According to the Herald's correspondent, on the 3d, there were over thirty steamers and 100 sail Fire.—The soda manufactory of Delahanty McQuirbe was destroyed by fire in San Francisco on the night of Februon the first of the month, and the attenour Consul. Our gunboat Honduras, arrived on the 31st, and asked permission to anchor in the harbor, but was refused by the Governor.

Late rebel papers present some very curious disclosures regarding the finan-cial and military matters of Jeff. Davis' dominions. The new currency is now considered of less value than the old. There is not money enough, even of this worthless character. in the Treasury to settle the immense outstanding accounts; and taxation is declared to be as heavy as the people can stand. The proposal of conscripting negroes by wholesale, having received an adverse decision in the rebel Congress, a scheme, calling on them to volunteer, is now being warmly discussed.

Hardee telegraphed from Charleston. on the 11th, that the rebel pickets were driven in on the James Island on the night of the 10th, but the lines were reestablished the next day. The Yankers are still in strong force on the Island however, with an increase of eighteen steamers off the Bar. The Richmond Despatch reports the landing of 20,000 men at Newbern, and believes the object to be an immediate advance on Raleigh, or on the railroad lines. Grant has visited Newbern lately.

The Richmond Despatch, of the 4th says, all communication with Charleston and Augusta is cut off, and nothing is known of the situation of those pla-

The Enquirer, of the 14th. says, Grant appears to be preparing to push forward his lines still further, having by his re-cent movement advanced them three miles further westward of Petersburg. Washington. Feb. 17th.

The House Com on Elections, re-Field and Mann, Representatives from Lousiana; and Jacks and Johnson, as Representatives from Arkansas.

St. Louis, Feb. 17th. A Cairo special says: Late Orleans advices report that the Mexican General Mejia, Commanding at Matamoras, has entered into an arrangement with the rebel authorities by which all refugees from Texas are returned to them and conscripted Meija claims acting under Maximilian's orders. Gen. Canby is said to have sent word to Majia that he will retaliate by taking and holding offi cers and Mexicans as hostages for every refugee returned to the rebels. Philadelphih, Feb. 17th.

The Bulletin's Washington special Richmond dispatch of the 15th says : We have for some days been in doubts as to what force Sherman sent in the direction of Augusta. This doubt has at length been solved. It seems that while his main army advanced toward Branchville and Charleston, he sent Kilpatrick's cavalry to demonstrate against Augusta and break up the Charleston and Augusta railroad. From official dispatches received at the War Department we learn that last Friday Wheeler attacked Kilpatrick at Aiken. on the Charleston and Augusta road, twenty miles north east of Augusta, and after considerable of an engagement drove him five miles in the direction of Branchville. Our troops have, no doubt, by this time, fallen back to the Congaree river. and it our troops fall behind Congaree the enemy will be able to shell Columbia from the south bank. We also learn that Congaree and its tributaries to the Saluda are both easily fordable above the city. This disposes us to believe that our troops will seek to give battle before crossing the Congaree.

The Richmond Whig says: We learn upon good authority that our forces are column, in the direction of Columbia, S. C., and will probably make a stand on the Santee. We learn that a naval force consisting of twelve officers and one hundred men, under command of Lieut. Tacony Read, were recently captured by the Yankees near Smithfield, Isle of Wight county, Va. Among the party was assistant engineer Tomlinson, of the James River fleet, who was married on the night before his departure.

There was a heavy fire at Danville, Va.. on Wednesday last. Estimated loss exceeds $200,000. Gen. Bragg is at present in Richmond.

New York, Feb. 17th. Hardee reports a repulse to our forces on James Island, and on the contrary, the Times' correspondent shows that a gallant charge was made on the rebel onter works, consisting of three redoubts which were captured. together with 30 prisoners. The rebels defending the redoubts were infantry, who fled pell mell before the impetuous charge of our men.

tion of the Gov't called to the fact by the secession movement and urging the early return of the State to the Union New Orleans, Feb. 10th.

A refugee from western Texas reports Price's command about 9.000 strong and mostly cavalry from Texas. Large numbers of deserters are constantly arriving at the Rio Grande and escaping north into Arkansas and Missouri. Price's head-quarters are at Borham, Texas, torty miles south of Red river, in a fine foraging region. Magruder is at Cam-den, Arkansas, with part of his command. His main body is chiefly cavalry, on stealing expeditions in Texas. The horses of both commands are in an exhausted condition. Magrader has 20,000 men on his muster rolls, two-thirds of whom are effective. Kirby Smith's head-quarters are still at Shreveport, La. His entire strength is estimated at 38,000, and only about 25,000 of which are service. able. An immense drove of heef cattle, numbering some 100.000 head, are roaming the prairies of western Texas. From the report of Kirby Smith, Magruder, and other rebel officers, the cotton spec-ulation still continues. Hart, the rebel agent at Matamoras. is said to have made million of dollars in gold.

The Tribune's army of the Potomac special says: The railroad is being extended to a position now held on the left by the 5th corps, and a large force of men are now employed upon it; numerous wagon roads are also being constructed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 14th. in a letter on the arming of slaves, argues that the proposed measure would be a great advantage in the single item of supplies, which is now a very important question with the rebel government.

The Despatch sees no hope of foreign intervention, and says it is useless to discuss the question. The Enquirer says: The recent rise in rebel paper was crushed by the Secretary of the Treasury throwing a quantity of gold on the market. It urges the destruction of the present currency and the reduction of the rebel debt to a gold

[COMMUNICATED.]
Overland Thieves Again.

The intelligent readers of the VEDETTE were doubtless startled out of their usual propriety by reading the communication from Erina, under the above caption in yesterday's issue Lest silence on our part should be construed into a confession of guilt, I beg to make a brief statement from which I leave your readers to infer the absolute and utter falsity of the accusations made with so much assurance against the employes of the Overland Mail Co. Erina, being quite an infant colony, it happens, in the firm place, that, prior to the time of which I now propose to speak, nothing in the shape of a package destined for that particular locality was ever presented at our office for transportation over the Line. On the 1st of the present month a letter was received at this office, dated Erins, Jan 30th, and signed H. F. Colley, in which the writer affirms that two pack ages-one addressed to bimself and the other to James Orr, both to Erina-had been forwarded by the O. M. Line s week or two previously and failed to reach their destination. I inquired into the matter and promptly replied that no such package or packages had ever been left either at this or the Eastern Line office, suggesting at the same time, that "they were either not sent at all, or else confided to some unfaithful person to deliver to the Stage office, who appropriated their contents to his own use."

More than two weeks latter-viz: on the 1st of February-a soldier from Camp Douglas brought a package to this office addressed to "Horace F. Colley," which, in answer to certain questions of mine, he admitted was the same (or at least one of the same) alluded to in C's letter, and that it had been detained in Camp. The package was promptly forwarded, and I have not the least fear of its having gone astray or having been gubbled up by any of our employes. So much for what is "known too well by the citizens of this place Erina, after so many of them have been euchered out of packages!" Besides this, there has been but one package for Erina, containing, what appeared to the touch like ax-handles and could therefore not with propriety be spoken of as "clothing."

On the charge of newspapers being abstracted en route I can not speak with so much clearness and certainty. Adbefore the impetuous charge of our men.

Gen. Gilmore was present at the fight.

At a meeting of loyal Georgians held in Cooper's Institute last night, speeches were made by several residents of Ga., and resolutions were passed denouncing. were made by several residents of Ga., correspondent is affected thereby, when and resolutions were passed denouncing. I assure them that but one paper—a copy of the VEDETTE is left at this office for that locality. They will also please determine wheth-

They will also please determine wheth-the purloining of an occasional numb-of your paper is of itself proof suffic-at to convict a person of being either a Vagabond, Copperhead or Secession-t," in the absence of all other testi-

But not to follow the insane vagaries of this outraged citizen of Erina any norther, allow me, in charity, to suggest inst he is perhaps simply the victim of what is termed "Guerrilla Whisky." the baleful effects of which are such, accord-ing to a late California paper, that "the distinction between a moderate drinker and a lunatic is fast disappearing.

Yours truly, AARON STEIN, Passenger Clerk. Office O M. Co., S. L. C Feb. 21st 65.

MARTIN, THE WIZARD.—This wondrous man of "Magical Doings" intends making southern tour through the settlements. thereby affording the people of the courtry an opportunity of witnessing the performance of the greatest Magician of the day. We wish for him that success which has attended him in all his travels and which should ever reward a worthy performance. We understand that it is the intention of Mr. Martin to open our Camp Theater with his marvelous entertainment soon, when our Camp people will be enabled to enjoy an evenings amusement in a place where brass buttons are not despised and treated with contempt.

THE article headed "Brigham's Power," which appeared in the VEDETTE of Monday last, was written in this Office, and through no instigation or desire of Mr. Martin; neither was he cognizant of the same. The article was written upon the information handed us by our "City Reporter." We have made this statement to correct the erroneous impression. which, we are told. is enter tained, by some, that it was at Mr. Martin's request the article appeared in our paper; and also, to relieve him from an unjust accusation.

WEATHER .- On Monday night the snow ceased its mad descent-the clouds partially disappeared and left us in a thoroughly frozen condition. Yester day mording the dark lowering clouds re-appeared with every indication of another fall of snow - only it was too biteing cold to admit of it.

BALL.-We hear it intimated that a grand ball is on the move for the 17th of March next. "Saint Patrick's Day." by the Volunteers at this post. Verily, we exclaimeth-let the ball roll on,

PRISONERS.-Fort Warren has late'y received an additional lot of rebel prisoners-some of the fruits of General Thomas' victory in Tennessee.

GEN. LEE KEEPS HIS WORD. When the rebel General Robert E. Lee was about to cast himself and his fortunes with the South in her mad contest against the Government and the Constitution, he wrote some letters expressive of his feelings upon that occasion which have since been published. One of them was his letter of resignation to General Scott, in which he expressed regret for the necessity which compelled him to resign his commission in the United States army after a service of a quarter of a century. He there stated that, although he was about to take a position hostile to the Government and flag that had equally honored and protected him, he would never draw his sword except in defense of his native state, Virginia. Curiously enough the circumstances of the war have enabled him to keep that pledge faithfully: for he has never fought a battle in any other rebel state, and never outside of Virginia except in Maryland and Pennsslvania, and then it was to protect the frontiers of Virginia, in the battles of Antietam and Gettysburg. Nor is there the least likelihood now that he will be permitted, even if he was dis-posed, to violate that pledge, for he is effectually cooped up in his native state.—N. Y. Herald.

A RECENT Nashville letter says the following officers, prisoners of war, captured in the late battles, have been sent North:

Major General Edward Johnston.

Brigadier General Thomas B.

Brigadier General Henry R. Jackson.

Colonel Wm. D. Mitchell, 29th Georgia.

Colonel Samuel E. Hunter, 48th Louisiana. Colonel Wm. M. Vorhies, 48th

Tennessee Infantry. Colonel M. Mageveny, 154th

Tennessee Infantry. Lieutenant Colonel W. F. Pennington, 4th Louisiana.

Lieutenant Colonel J. D. Weeden, 49th Alabama.

Lieutenant Colonel Wm. C. Clitton, 39th Alabama.

Captain Martin B. Mitchell, (Stuart's staff.)

Four Surgeons, sixty-six Captains, two hundred and thirtynine Lieutenants, a large number of non-commissioned officers and privates.

A FAMILY WRANGLE.—The last wicked story of Paris is, that there is a mother-married, of course, very early - who still prides herself on her youth and beauty. She has had differences with her son, who is old enough at least to be examined on oath. They both had to state their age in a court of justice.

"Your age, madame?" asks the courteous justice.

"Twenty-five," says the audacious mother.

A little later the son is in the box. "Your age, sir?" asks the justice.

"Why," answers ingenious youth, "I find, to my astonishment, that I am a year older than my mother."

A whale was caught in September, in Davis Straits, and in its body was found imbedded a large piece of a harpoon, on which was engraved, "Traveller, Peter-head—1838." This was the name of a vessel lost about eight years ago in Cumberland Straits.
